Attorney: Jeff Stacer

I understand the following regarding discussions with the above named attorney while at a Zoom/Virtual Team Works workshop:

1. There is no financial charge to me for such discussions.
2. Such discussions are not private or protected by the attorney/client privilege, even if the group is small or I am the only one left.
3. The attorney is not my attorney and no attorney client relationship exists between the attorney and me unless I have retained the attorney in writing.
4. Such discussions are for general educational and information purposes only and should not be relied upon as legal advice specific to my needs.
